Foreword

What's really important? In this day and age the urgent is often mistaken for the important. It is urgent to attain an education, but more important to make use of it. It is urgent to have friends, but still more important to be a friend. It is urgent to succeed in a chosen vocation, but more important to succeed in life itself. It is urgent to hold dear, memories of years past; it is also important to look to the future.

The future calls today's seniors into a troubled world of unrest and misunderstanding. It is urgent that they realize this challenge; and important that they rise up to it and meet it head on. Tomorrow's seniors will be faced with problems of that day; they too, will have a goal to reach.

The years ahead will be filled with tears and challenge, with laughter and fulfillment. The road is long, but there is time before going on to pause for a moment, to look back, and to again relive a year of memories.

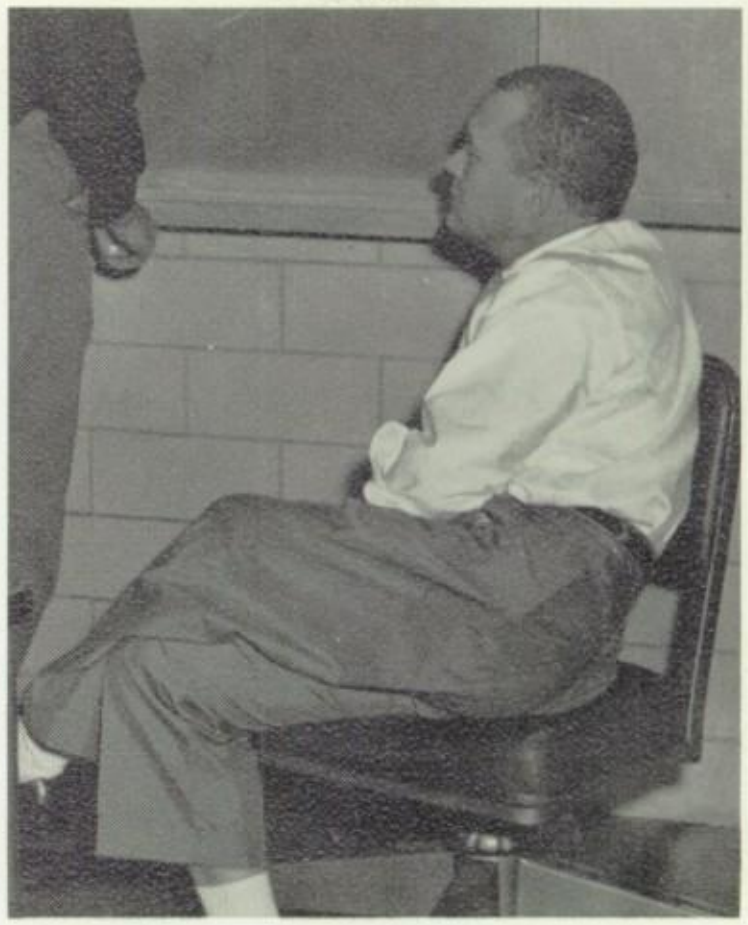
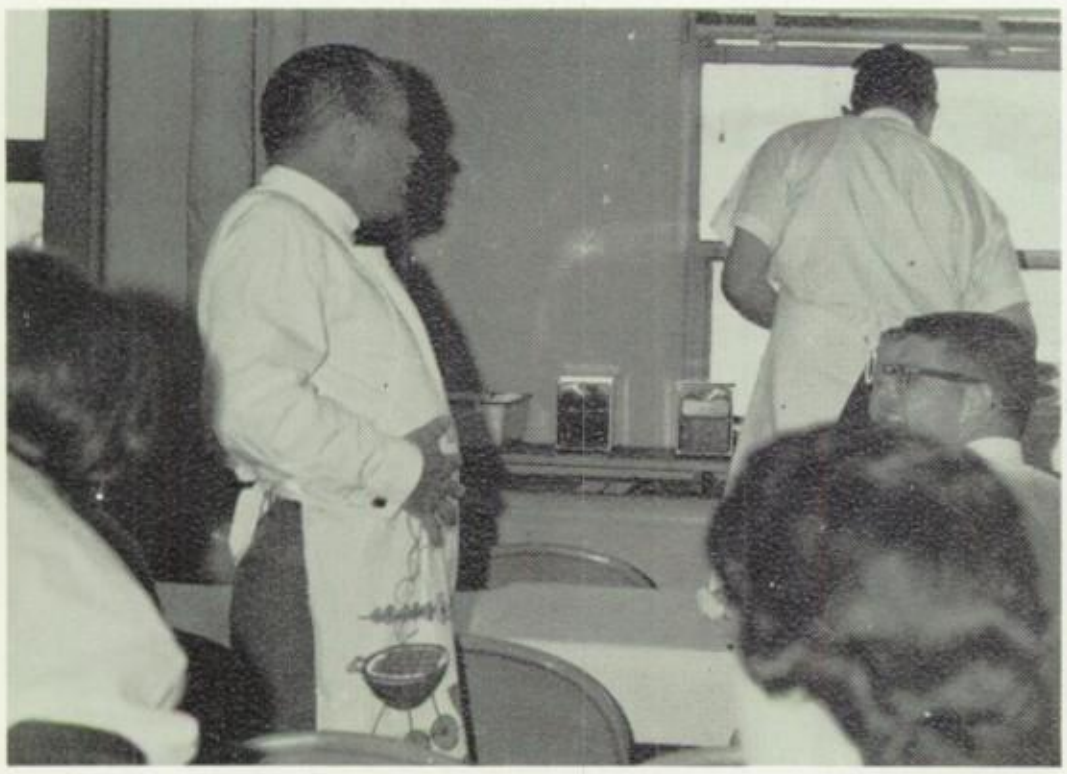
Dedication

To Mr. Hubert Waugh, in appreciation for helping to make Turner more than a place of learning, but a place of laughing, for being more than a teacher, but a friend, and for making life not only a challenge, but a goal, we dedicate this 1963 Turnerite with deepest sincerity and admiration.

"All you guys get up here on the double." As a football and basketball coach Mr. Waugh expects his boys to hustle even when they're receiving awards at awards' assembly.



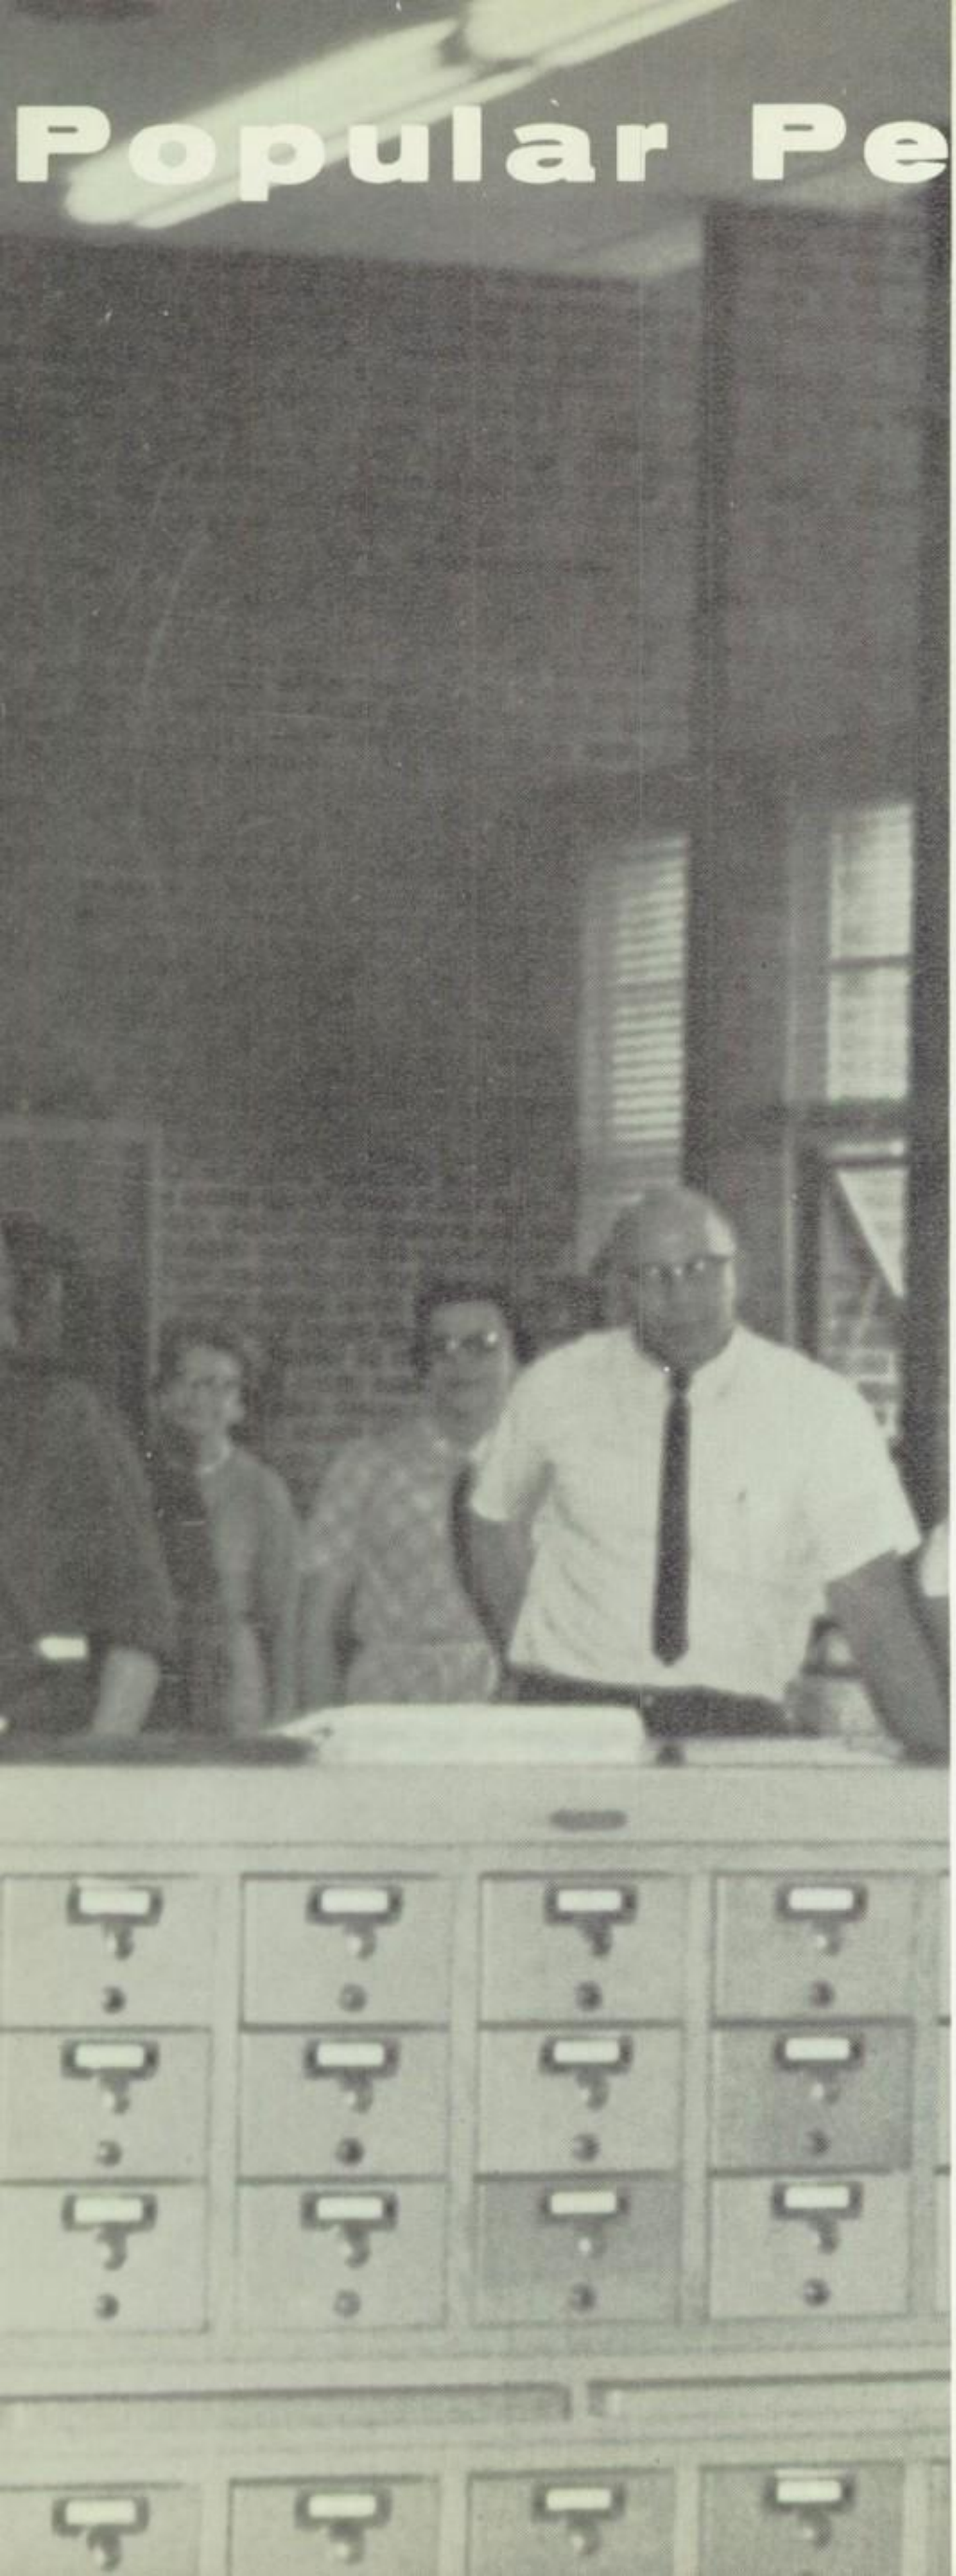
"By the way, Barrel, when are you bringing those candy bars you owe us?" This sort of thing happens quite often in Mr. Waugh's math classes.



Mr. Waugh joined in the fun of the senior breakfast and seemed to enjoy it as much as the seniors.

Mr. Waugh and Mr. Bowman liked that last play as they watched the Bears add to their football victories.

Popular Personalities



In the world today there is much to be learned, much to be discovered, but first there must be a teacher, one who knows, one who can show the way. The purpose of school is to prepare the citizens of tomorrow for the positions they must fill. The purpose of a teacher is to make first a worth-while citizen.

Board Broadens For Community Betterment

Members of the Board of Education of the Turner United School District #202 are: STANDING: Harold Cook, Treasurer; Joseph Steineger, Jr., Dr. Sanford Witter, Superintendent of Schools. SEATED: Aubrey Gentry, Jim Michael, Paul Jones, President; Dr. Lee Rook, Vice-President.

The Board of Education of the newly created Turner Unified School District #202 has finished its first year in office. Dr. Sanford C. Witter has had a busy year in organizing and coordinating the unified educational efforts of the high school and five area elementary schools, Junction, Morris, Muncie, Oak Grove, and Turner. To assist Dr. Witter in his duties Bruce Crosswait, assistant superintendent, was employed by the Board of Education. In addition to the work involved in organizing a unified district has been the curriculum and construction planning for the two new junior highs and grade school being built within the next year. The entire Turner educational system will move forward with even greater strides as a result of unification and added facilities.

Leaders Lend Service to School

T. R. PALMQUIST

"Relatively speaking Turner High School is a young school," said Mr. T. R. Palmquist, principal of Turner High School. The first graduating class was in 1919, but during the first 20 years of the school there were only 200 graduates. Enrollment has grown from 200 in 1938 to over 1200 in 1963. In just the last year there were over 200 graduates.

A graduate of Ottawa University, he served as principal of the Bluff City High School, and as superintendent of schools at Wellsville, Kansas. He was superintendent of Turner from 1938 until 1947 when he became principal. Just this past year he was saluted for his 25 year record of service to Turner High School. At the National Education Association convention this past summer he was elected to the Board of Directors. He will be one of two representatives from Kansas on the National Board.

Mr. Palmquist has been active for the past six years on the Board of Directors of the state teachers' association, serving for three years as its chairman. He is activie in the United Fund and church work, also in the efforts of the Wyandotte County Guidance Center.

Mr. Robert Wilkins has served Turner High School faithfully for twelve years. Starting in 1951 as an Industrial Arts teachers, he later became Vice-Principal.

It takes a person with lots of ambition and interest to carry on a job of this rank. His work ranges from morning attendance work to that of handling discipline; he also is in charge of enrollment and program planning. Mr. Wilkins recently received the honor of being appointed chairman of the steering committee to help with curriculum planning and organizing for the new junior high schools which are to be built. This duty will be another of the many jobs to be done well.

Being Vice-Principal is a continuous job which carries on into the summer months. After school is out, various tasks such as preparing schedules and balancing classes for the next year are begun. Each student is given special attention during the year and even after school is out to ensure him of a well-rounded education which is essential in this complex day and age.

Mr. Wilkins has worked hard to help each student at Turner receive the best possible opportunity for a pleasant atmosphere in which to learn.

He himself has received a Masters degree in secondary school administration and is in the Phi Delta Kappa which is an honorary fraternity. Recently he has done course work in administration at the University of Kansas City.

Papers, Phones, People, and Problems

As secretary to Mr. Palmquist Miss Jones has many duties and responsibilities to attend to.

"Be seated and someone will see you in a moment." This comment could have come from one of three very busy ladies who handle all the activity in the office including giving students permission to use the office phone. Mrs. Iona Carmichael who has been at Turner eleven years is very familiar to everyone. This is Mrs. Betty Higgins third year and the first year for Mrs. Ruth Thomas. Miss Peggy Jones is also new this year and she acts as Mr. Palmquist's private secretary as well as handling the activities fund.

Other duties of these people include handling teacher and student attendance records, answering telephone calls, lost and found, besides plenty of filing and typing.

Counting money is one job Mrs. Carmichael doesn't mind too much.

Mrs. Thomas has found Turner to be a big school with a busy office.

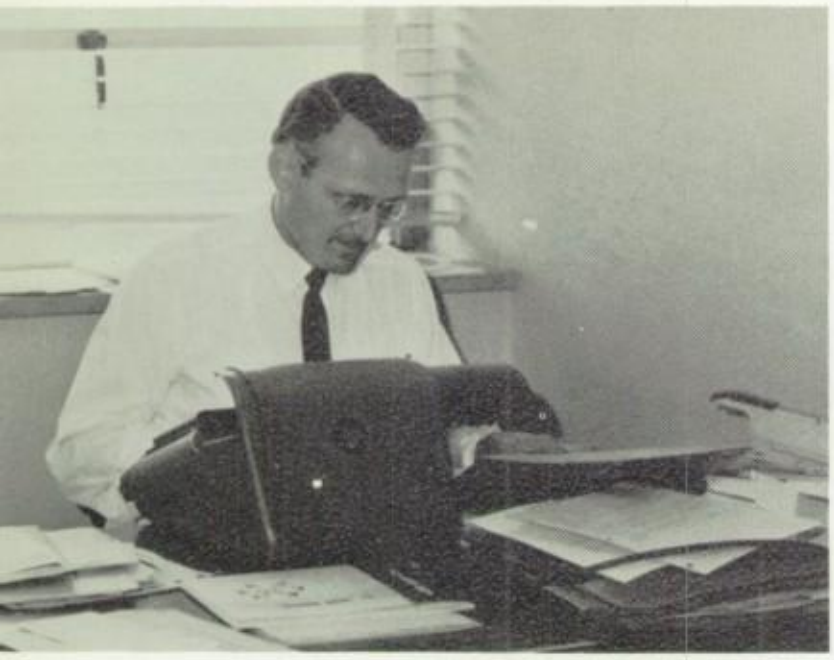
P.T.A. officers for the '62-'63 year are: Mrs. Ed Dressler, first vice-president; Mrs. Bernard Craig, recording secretary; Mrs. George Huck, second vice-president; Mrs. Robert Sullivan, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Richard Stapp, treasurer; and Mrs. Russell Boyer, president.

An important organization in every school is the Parent-Teacher Association. Turner's PTA is a very active group and does much to benefit the school. They sponsor concessions at football games, and try to bring a closer relationship between teachers and parents through special programs. Monthly meetings are planned which feature occasional speakers, style shows by the clothing classes, and special music by the choir. This year the PTA presented scholarships to two seniors, Carol Alvey and Richard Andrews.

Assistance Is Always Available



Mr. Bell is busy checking over Kardex files, charting each student's scores and grades.

Three very important people to students at Turner are the guidance counselors. Among their many duties are enrollment, orientation activities for freshmen, college programing, testing, and helping to solve individual problems.

Mrs. Eisele is particularly concerned with helping students at Turner decide on colleges and helps to solve various problems that go with college plans. She has been at Turner four years and is a familiar friend to many students.

Mr. Gene Bell has been counseling for ten years, eight of which have been spent at Turner. He is in charge of all testing programs, student records, and sponsoring Student Council. All Turner students comes to know Mr. Bell through the vocations classes he teaches the sophomore year.

Mr. Paul Welter is our newest counselor as this is he first year at Turner. Besides counseling he teaches Communications class to Seniors. Mr. Welter deals in homeroom guidance, and Senior graduation credits in particular. All students are welcome to visit these people for any problem.

Mrs. Eisele helps students work out the many problems that come with planning for college.

Mr. Welter helps seniors figure out the number of credits they need and helps plan their graduation.

And Labor to Launch Lifework

"Language, sir, is the blood of the soul, into which our thoughts run, and out of which they grow." (Oliver Wendell Holmes)

English is our language, and the language of over one fifth of the world, either as the first or second tongue. It is continually growing in universal appeal and growing more important in our society. Perhaps, it may be the link to join countries in a chain of peace.

Four years of English are required at Turner. English I, II, and III are required courses and elective courses such as English IV, junior and senior journalism, drama, speech, debate, stagecraft, and communications are offered. Tomorrow's citizens will have a greater command of the language they speak and will know better how to apply it to the world in which they live.

Science and Space Spur Students

The expanding horizons of the space age are presenting new challenges in all fields, but the impact of this revolution is felt in the sciences more than in any other discipline.

Such terms as isotope, half-life and ATP are becoming familiar terms to students nation wide.

In an attempt to meet this challenge, the government has initiated programs of aid such as the National Defense, and Education Act and yearly grants furnished by the National Science Foundation designed to improve the facilities and quality of science education across the nation.

Turner has responded to the impact of this revolution with the highest enrollment in science in its history. Classes such as general science, biology, chemistry and physics are constantly being revised and new classes added. One such class, Biology II, was introduced at Turner this year.

Mr. Bainer's new biology II class is busy making some new scientific discovery.

Problems Puzzle Pupils, Preaches Profs

As a tool to develop the mind math teaches a student to think and reason for himself, which as an individual he must learn to do.

Turner has broadened its math program this year by adding a General Math II class. The purpose of the class is to serve as a refresher course for students having only one year of math in high school. Another addition to the math department is calculus. It is now offered to approved seniors during their study hall period every other day. The course gives one-half credit for the year. Other courses offered in the math department are general math, Algebra I and II, geometry, and senior math.

The exciting world of business with its clicking typewriters and ringing phones has opened its doors to all. To prepare future secretaries and executives for this busy world Turner offers many fine courses in the business field. Such classes as typing, shorthand, bookkeeping, and office practice give students valuable training and experience.

All students, even those who are college bound, need some business education to compete in the world today. Many choose to make a career in the business field, an interesting and worth-while profession.

To encourage students in typing and shorthand the Gregg awards are offered each year to those who can qualify for them. Future businessmen and women are given the best possible basis for success in their chosen vocation.

Learn those brief forms and characters in shorthand.

Industry Incites Initiative

Be accurate! It's a must in auto mechanics.

High schools of today are doing everything possible to prepare students for a prosperous and full life after graduation. This not only includes college preparation, but also development of certain skills and abilities which may aid a student in selecting a vocation. The purpose of industrial arts is to give valuable training to boys who are interested in the industrial field as a possible vocation or as a hobby.

Turner has well-equipped shop areas which give students opportunity to work with up-to-date machinery and gain actual experience through their work. Courses offered in this department are printing, auto mechanics, general shop, metal and wood working and mechanical drawing.

Today in the troubled times of our modern and complex society sociology plays an important role in preparing a student for a wiser and better understanding among individuals, racial groups and in religious and economic situations. Social science courses such as American History, world history, American Government, international relations, psychology and sociology combine together to give students the most realistic knowledge possible of the world in which they are about to make their way in the near future.

If a student is to make the most of life he must understand life as a whole. Understanding our complicated society helps to solve social problems he may encounter throughout his lifetime. The role our social science department plays in the life of each student is vitally important in molding a worth-while member of the world community.

Learning Languages Link Lands

"I came, I saw, I conquered." These are familiar words to Mrs. Grey's Latin II students.

Today more than ever the people of the world need to be able to communicate and understand each other. It is almost essential that students in school today learn as much foreign language as possible. The world of tomorrow is going to be a closely-linked community and tomorrow's leaders must be able to work closely together to preserve a world of peace.

Turner offers two foreign languages in its curriculum: Latin, the basis of English language, and French, one of the prominent languages spoken in the world. The language department at Turner is continually growing as a new French teacher was added to the faculty this year. Students are encouraged to broaden their knowledge by taking advantage of the opportunity to learn about other people of the world by studying their language.

Guys and Gals Grow in Gym

Hey! that's my ball. Girls in gym really get into the game.

The body must grow along with the mind. Physical education is as much a part of the school curriculum as are the more academic subjects.

Turner offers excellent courses in physical education, including Gym I and II which are required, and a new class Gym III which is an elective. Its purpose is either for higher physical development or corrective physical development. Students are encouraged also to participate in intramural activities as well as regular classes.

The sound of music rings through the halls of Turner again. Each year Turner students share in the enjoyment derived from the musical assemblies and other performances provided by those enrolled in the music department. Freshmen through seniors have an opportunity to further their knowledge in the world of music language under the direction of Mr. Erdman Johnson and Mr. A. T. Estes.

Countless hours are spent with the band, glee clubs and choir to develop the talent that is presented in such activities as Handel's "Messiah" which was presented again this year in its fourteenth annual production, state competition at Lawrence and musical assemblies. The music department has ended another busy and prosperous year at Turner.

Two hundred and fifty voices ring out in Handel's Messiah.

Accent on Art Accomplishments

LOIS LEONARD

Art

"A picture is worth a thousand words." According to students enrolled in art classes at Turner this old Chinese proverb is certainly true. As art class enables the really creative student to display his ability in the way he knows best.

The artist sees many aspects of life that others do not. Just as a poet expresses his feelings about life through words, the artist does this through pictures. An art class teaches a student to look for real meanings in everyday life and to express his ideas easily to others.

Pots, Pans, Pins, and Patterns

"Behind every successful man is a woman." This statement may not hold true in every case but a woman can be a real asset to herself and her family. She must first realize the importance of the role in life she has chosen for herself-that of wife and mother. She will want to fulfill the responsibility of keeping up a home, caring for children and of being an interesting individual to the best of her ability.

Home economics helps prepare young women for this responsibility. Turner offers interesting courses such as foods, clothing and home living. Girls are taught the basic arts of preparing nourishing meals, making attractive clothes, and running a household. Excellent equipment is provided for these classes so that girls will learn through actual experience the importance of being a successful homemaker.

All Ailments Alleviated

In a time of modern medical miracles, people are still in need of a pleasant, pretty nurse to tell them everything is fine and they're going to be all right. Mrs. Dodson, Turner's school nurse, is in charge of attendance records and keeps health records on each student. When necessary, she administers first-aid for minor ailments and refers students to family doctors for more serious illnesses. A very busy lady, she is an important part of Turner's faculty.

Between the covers of every book lies a world of knowledge awaiting those who would only grasp it. Students of Turner need only look as far as their own school library to find such books.

The library not only holds fine research books but also many books for reading enjoyment.

For further convenience of Turner students the library has a reading room. Its purpose is to give students an opportunity to glance through current magazines and various newspapers.

The library also makes an excellent study hall as all materials are close at hand.

The cafeteria ladies smile for a picture: Mrs. Eva Piersee, Mrs. Bea Chase, Mrs. Maxine Shirk, Mrs. Nadine Asbill, Mrs. Olga Lunday, Mrs. Alice Rose, and Mrs. Audrey Jones.

Mrs. Crummitt is patiently awaiting the noon rush.

Special People Serving School

Behind the scenes of any organization are people who are seldom seen, but are nonetheless, valuable to the smooth running of that organization. In Turner's case the bus drivers, custodians and cafeteria ladies fill these positions.

Every morning and evening the bus drivers are in charge of the safe delivery of students to and from school. Although, sometimes hectic, they don't seem to mind.

Cooking for over eleven hundred people five days a week is no easy job and the eleven cafeteria ladies certainly know it. Nonetheless each morning they busily rush around preparing for the noon rush.

The custodians are another group in the line of important helpers at Turner. Among their many duties are keeping the halls and classrooms clean, making general repairs, and other odd jobs that must be done in a large high school. They are always willing to lend the needed assistance.

Pleasant Pastimes

The feeling of belonging, of being a part of something is an individual need of everyone. Whether it be participating in club activities, acting in a play, or just having fun with the gang, the value of working with people who share mutual interests is immeasurable. Being with friends and enjoying people is one of life's most valued experiences.

The first Student Council meeting at Turner High School was held September 26, 1936. This makes Turner's council one of the oldest in the district.

You may call the council a miniature congress. Its purpose is to encourage school spirit, take a leading part in school activities, and provide an opportunity for students to express their opinions.

The activities the organization sponsored this year were basketball concessions, Homecoming, two all-school parties, a Valentine formal and Twirp dance, Student Council elections, a foreign exchange student, and the support of a Korean schoolboy.

The Student Council officers were elected by popular vote in the spring after extensive campaigns. In the fall, one representative is elected from each homeroom and serves for a period of one semester.

Mestri Introduces Indonesian Ideas

Mestri and her American sisters enjoyed doing many things together but dishes may not have been one of them.

For the past three years, the American Field Service has selected a student from a foreign country to attend school at Turner and share the differences of their culture with the students here.

This year, Sri Sumestri, better known as Mestri to the Turner students, from Sourabaya, Indonesia, occupied this position. She lived with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Alvey, 1846 South 49th Street. Their three daughters, Carol, senior, Linda, junior, and Janet, a 1961 graduate of Turner, were Mestri's American sisters.

Mestri's subjects at Turner included: American history, American government, senior math, and speech. She was also active in Pep Club, and the bowling league.

Refute, Rebuff and Rebuttle

This past year the Turner High School Debate squad, represented the school in six invitational tournaments and the District tournament. Under the direction of Mr. L. A. Stafford, the squad made several fine showings and at the end of the season had won forty per cent of their rounds.

The tournaments that the squad attended were held at: Washburn, Topeka West, William Christman, Bishop Meige, Wyandotte and Rosedale high schools.

Turner was highly ranked repeatedly during the season on personal speaker points.

Each year the Speech Department contributes some very fine talent to represent Turner at district and state speech and drama contests. For the past two years Carol Alvey has received "one" ratings for her poetry interpretations and this year Kay Jones and Nancy Jones received a "one" for duet acting. Those receiving "twos" for their readings were Robin Thomas, Gary Leach, and Ray Farrar. Sally Ross received a "three" for her reading of winter. These students have gained some good experience due to hard work and effort.

"The earth stands on either side no bigger than the heart is wide." Carol Alvey gives her interpretation of "Renascence" which won her a "one" rating at the state contest.

Fun and Fortune Form Futures

To better inform Health Club members on the medical profession an occasional guest was invited to speak on various related topics.

Health Club officers for this year are: Joyce Heineken, secretary; Loanna Owens, president; Leonard Neff, treasurer; and Wanda Jenkins, vice-president.

Health Careers opens its membership to any junior or senior who is genuinely interested in any kind of a medical career and carries a "C" average. Members must have regular attendance in order to receive a pin. The Wyandotte County Medical Auxiliary, which consists of doctors' wives, presented the pins on May 1, at Bethany.

Each month there is a speaker to further inform members on some phase of medicine. Informative tours through Osawatomie and St. Margaret's this year were sponsored by Mrs. Dodson, the school nurse.

Future Teachers of America is made up of Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors who have a sincere interest in the teaching profession. The group is sponsored by Mrs. Dorothy Platt and Mr. Carl Grossarth.

Mr. Wilkins was aided by the club members when they made bulletin boards at the Kansas State Teachers Meeting at Shawnee Mission West. The members sold golden bear pens as a money-making project.

These four future teachers led their club activities throughout the past year: Sharon Jacobs, Sally Ross, Carol Alvey, and Tim West.

Y-Clubs Contribute to Community

Aiding the community through various projects is one of the main purposes of Y-Teens. Members give their time to hospitals and orphanages and other worth-while things throughout the year. There were approximately sixty members in the club and meetings were held twice a month. Club sponsors were Miss Shirley Coffin and Mrs. Essie Davis. Business meetings were conducted and occasionally an outside speaker was invited to speak. Devotions were given at each meeting and refreshments were occasionally served.

Each year a member of the club attends a Tri-City Conference in which various schools exchange ideas and get new ones for the year to come.

Building character and serving the community are two of the objectives of Hi-Y. Each year this boys' club sponsors a Christmas basket for needy families in the community. Money raising projects include such things as a car wash and selling candy.

To help acquaint boys with the workings of modern government many members participate in Model Legislature. This year two representatives of the Turner club, Bill Thomas and Jim Kendall, presented a bill at the conference held in Topeka. The Hi-Y basketball team competed against Hi-Y clubs from other schools throughout the year. The club is sponsored by Mr. Vernon Allison.

Hi-Y boys hold many important meetings throughout the year. Here they are shown electing officers for the coming year.

Spirit Strengthens Students

The very active officers of YFC are: SEATED: Dan Warren. STANDING: Sandy Redmon, Ester Copeland, Cheryl McFarland, and Larry Gage. NOT PICTURED: Bette Cox and Marion Stauffer.

YFC Club was started at Turner High School in 1954. When it was first organized the meetings were held during activity period on a Youth For Christ bus. As the club grew larger, permission was granted to use the auditorium. Membership has increased to approximately 400 members. The meetings are now held bi-weekly in the auditorium. Mr. Gene Bell is the sponsor of the club at Turner.

The activities of YFC included "Funspiration," YFC Quiz Team, and a YFC Camp. The YFC quiz team members who received trophies were Larry Gage and Ester Copeland.

Youth for Christ is an international organization with active members in 45 countries. Its headquarters is in Wheaton, Illinois. The purpose of the club is to instill in the members a sense of spiritual leadership and to promote spiritual activities in the student body.

YFC has one of the largest memberships of any Turner clubs. Many students enjoy attending the meetings.

To promote interest and appreciation of the civilization, language, literature and art of ancient Greece and Rome is the purpose of the year old Latin Club. Sponsored by Mrs. Lucy Grey the club undertook various projects this year such as a calendar festival and a special Christmas celebration. The highlight of the year was the Roman Banquet at which Darlene Emerich and Clifford Talley were crowned queen and king.

Perplexing Problems Pondered

To exchange ideas on various controversial questions and to acquire a better understanding of world problems was the purpose of Discussion Club. The club is in its second year with a relatively small membership thus far. Its president again this year was George Middlemas.

Nancy Jones, Pat Curth, and Scott Davis use the map to better understand the world and problems in it.

Training: Tomorrow's Tool Today

Much planning and work went into the Industrial Arts Show sponsored by Industrial Arts Club.

The field of industry offers many vocational opportunities to all interested young men. To help encourage this interest the Industrial Arts Club was formed and has just finished its second year at Turner. It is sponsored by Mr. Kenneth Syring and has approximately twenty-five members.

Early in the year members visited the Tension Envelope Company and were given an opportunity to see industry in action. The club also sponsored an Industrial Arts Fair. Visitors were invited to look at various projects and see the facilities in the department.

Pictures Paint Poetry

The newly formed Art Club under the sponsorship of Mrs. Lois Leonard, art instructor, undertook various creative jobs during the school year. The Christmas mural for the north staircase window and the decorating of the Christmas tree were among these activities. A trip to the Nelson Art Gallery to see The Von Gogh displays, and the judging of art contests finished out the year.

The 1962-1963 officers were: John Sullivan, president; Linda Syring, vice-president; Bobbie White, secretary; Dale Ann Riden, treasurer; and Susan Oakes, publicity chairman.

We can't tell yet what it is but members of Art Club seem to be quite interested in it. Whatever it is, it looks fascinating.

Thespians--Talent--Theatricals

"The show must go on!" This is a familiar cry to a group of hardworking Turner students known as the Thespians. To become a member of the club a minimum of ten points must be earned by either acting on stage or by working behind the scenes on the stage crew.

In the past year under the direction of Mr. Cropp this group has presented to the Turner stage an annual Thespian assembly and an all-school play. They have also represented Turner at various speech and drama activities throughout the area.

Tomorrow's star is today's Thespian. Who knows? In this picture could be another Gable or Barrymore.

Dots and Dashes Direct Discussion

The Radio club finished its fourth year at Turner under the direction of Mr. Phillip Bainer. The purpose of this club is to promote interest in amateur radio and electronic experiments.

Throughout the year, the club helped three of its members to receive operators license and also worked hard on setting up a club radio station.

The club officers were Jack Generan, president and trustee; John Sullivan, vice-president; and Don Rogers, secretary-treasurer.

Working with radios is an interesting pastime.

Ushers Unite for Usefulness

These girls are rarely found sitting down. As ushers it is their job to see that others are comfortably seated.

A group of pleasant, helpful young students help to form one of Turner's active clubs--the usher club. Many school productions are made bigger and better through the help and cooperation of these people. Under the direction of Mr. Don Hanley, they usher at plays, musicals, the Messiah, and graduation. Coat check and ticket selling also help keep the members busy. Points may be earned toward membership in the Thespian society.

Teens Taught Traffic Tactics

A popular event sponsored by TTT Club was the car bash. Boys really got a "bang" out of it.

The Turner Teenage Traffic Safety Club composed of forty-two members was sponsored this year by Mr. R'Leigh Bell and Mr. Jim Holwerda, both driver education teachers.

Among its activities, the TTT Club registered and issued stickers for cars in the high school parking lot, reminded students of traffic safety with posters in the halls, and held a car bash in April. Bill John, president; and Denise Smith, program chairman; attended the annual Governor's Safety Conference in Topeka.

Duties and Deadlines are Demanding

As editor-in-chief of THE BOOSTER Nancy Hallisey has had a big job. Reading copy for the final issue was somewhat of a pleasure.

"Did we write that?" Looking over the finished product are Larry Stewart, circulation manager; Judy Bruce, feature editor; Roy Anderson, sports editor; Pat Curth, feature reporter; and Jerry Everett, sports reporter.

Working hard to meet that deadline are Sandy Lester, editorial reporter; Carolyn Gerdes, editorial editor; Sheryl Staake, news editor; Judy McKee, news reporter; and Janet Boyer, news reporter.

Cub photographers Danny Gilbert and Larry Moore work on pictures for the next Booster.

Fitting the pieces together was often the job of Brenda Drumwright, assistant editor and Ray Farrar, layout editor.

Time, Thought, Theme, Turnerite

Joyce Herring, editor-in-chief of the Turnerite, is found busily typing that last headline. All those words and the same letters, too!

Scott Davis and Jan Bonga are caught mixing up a formula for better pictures, we hope!

Melodies March Majestically

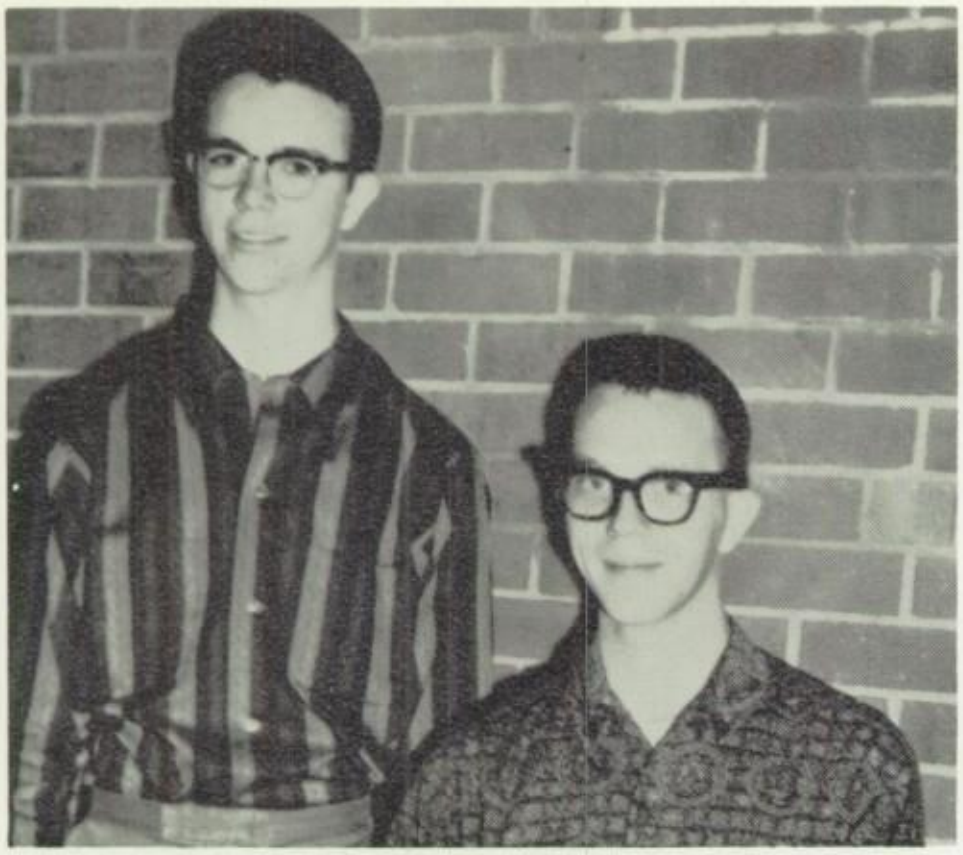
Mr. Estes leads the band through all the fine programs that it appears in throughout the year.

Good music, hard work and loads of fun went into the many activities of the Turner band this year under the direction of Mr. A. T. Estes.

The 68-member band played host this year to the East Kansas League Music Festival of 446 students. Besides their regular appearances at football games and the Argentine and American Royal parades, under direction of drum major, Jim Brown, they participated in K.U. Band Day and the District Music contest at Lawrence. The Pep Band, a small selected group, provided entertainment during the basketball season.

The band's activities were increased as they represented Turner at the United Funds Tabulation dinner and the Kansas City, Kansas Christmas lighting ceremony.

Outstanding performances this year went to Bob Baker, oboe soloist, Stanley Smith and Bob Mace, trumpet soloists; and The Four Freshman, a trumpet trio. These students participated in the District Music Contest and received I and II ratings.

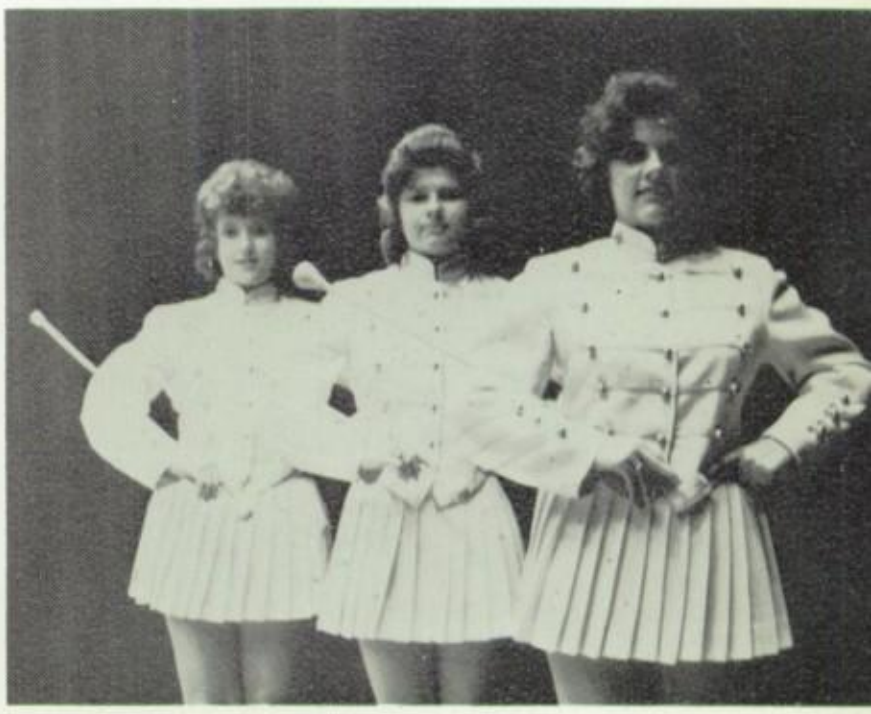


Two outstanding band students are Mike Weaver who lead the Pep Band at basketball games and Bob Baker, oboe soloist who received a one rating at the state contest two years in a row.

For the second year Jim Brown served as drum major for the band.

Added Accomplishments Acknowledged

The Turner High School Band looked very impressive at the American Royal Parade.



Majorettes add to the enjoyment of half-time ceremonies presented by the band at football games.

Besides being director of the choir, Mr. Erdman Johnson is kept busy with other musical productions throughout the year.

Each year the Turner student body and various groups in the community are presented musical productions by the Turner robed choir. Directed by Mr. Erdman Johnson, it is composed of approximately sixty voices.

"The Red Mill," this year's musical, was presented October 25 and 27. Other presentations made by the choir during the year were at PTA meetings, churches, Christmas and Easter assemblies, the Messiah, EKL music festival and the music contest which is held annually at Lawrence.

Dusty Melton, senior; and Betty Cox, sophomore; were a very essential core in the activities of the choir. They accompanied the choir on various occasions and assisted during practices.

The officers of this year's choir were: John Gann, president; Phyllis Campbell, vice-president; Kay Jones, secretary-treasurer; and Susan Oakes served as librarian.

Choir's Contributions Completed

The 62-63 choir assembles for the last time together to sing at graduation.

Under the direction of Mr. Johnson the choir performs at various musical assemblies throughout the year.

Merry Music In Musical Makes

Con Kidder strikes again but Tina doesn't seem to notice.

"The Red Mill," an hilarious musical comedy, was presented October 25 and 27 under the direction of Mr. Erdman Johnson, and staged by Mr. David Cropp. The production was the fifth annual musical to be presented at Turner and was sponsored by the THS choir and the Thespian Society.

The story centers around the escapades of Con Kidder and Kid Conner, two fun-loving Americans, played equally well by Gary Leach and Larry Stewart. They find themselves stranded without funds in Katwyk-ann-Zee, a small village in Holland. Such famous songs as "Streets of New York," "When You're Pretty," "Moonbeams," and "You Never Can Tell About A Woman" were heard by one of the largest audiences to ever view a Turner production.

Accompanists for both performances were Miss Mildred Cunningham, organist; and Dusty Melton, senior; and Betty Cox, sophomore, pianists. Kay Jones and Jerry Wistrom served as production assistants. Miss Madeline Briggs and Pat Coughlin were choreographers.

Court Considers Crime in Class Conception

Drama, suspense and excitement was the core of this year's Junior Play, "The Night of January 16." The play was a courtroom drama about a murder, or was it a suicide? That was the decision left to the jury, composed of members of the audience each night of the performance.

The production, sponsored by the Junior Class turned out to be one of the biggest successes this year. It ranked with some of the other stage hits Turner has produced in the past such as "The Diary of Anne Frank" and "Oklahoma!"

Charlene Van Dyke as the accused murderess and Pam McGregor as the murdered man's widow did a fine job of acting adding much to the production.

The suspense grows as the District Attorney Flint questions Mrs. John Hutchins.

Satirical Stunts were Spotlighted

Laughter and satire were the ingredients of the Junior Stunt Night presented March 29, 1963. In the high school division, the seniors carried home the honors with a skit based on James Thurber's short story, "There's a Unicorn in the Garden." Larry Stewart, Ray Farrar, Nancy Jones and Kay Jones were the principal players.

Sophomores were runners-up with a work-out with "Jack La Lanne" alias Don Rogers. The freshmen placed third with a mock TV talent show emceed by Perry Richardson. The Junior Classical Club and Bible Club both received honorable mention.

As is the custom the president of the junior class, who this year is John Flower, served as master of ceremonies for the evening.

Maybe this is what helped Morris win first place in the grade school division.

Morris Elementary School won first place in the grade school division with a series of excerpts from Rodgers and Hammerstein's "The Music Man" under the direction of Mr. James Neihart. Oak Grove was runner-up with a satire on country and city folk. Turner Grade School ranked third featuring a Philippine dance done by several third graders. Honorable mention was won by Muncie and Junction Grade Schools.

Americans Abroad Arouse Amusement

"You're Monsieur de la Croix?" Mr. Skinner finds this hard to believe and the steward finds it hard to keep a straight face.

Cardinal Richelieu's bedbugs and an exploding gas meter were only two of the problems encountered by Kay Jones as Cornelia Otis Skinner and Nancy Jones as Emily Kimbrough in the Senior Class Play, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay." The story concerns the experiences of two girls on their first trip away from home to the city of Paris. Everyone enjoyed the antics of these two zany Americans as they turned the city upside down. Gary Leach as the forgiving, understanding father and Carol Alvey as the patient, worried mother added much to the delight of the play. Supported by a fine cast the production proved to be a very entertaining evening for all.

All School Selection Suggest Simplicity

George and Emily have just had an important talk that will affect their whole lives.

Straightforwardness, modesty, and sincerity were the principal ingredients of this year's all school play, "Our Town," by Thornton Wilder.

The story centers around the little town of Grovers Corners, New Hampshire, featuring the love affair of young George Gibbs and Emily Webb. The outstanding characteristic of the production is that very little scenery is used and the story is told quite objectively by the stage manager, a very strange and remarkable person. The story is divided into three parts: The Simple Life, Love and Marriage, and Death. It is a very unique play, giving the audience a feeling of satisfaction and realization.

Mike Auchard as the stage manager gave a very fine performance as did John Huff as Mr. Webb and Robbin Thomas as Emily. "Our Town" was one of the most enjoyable plays presented at Turner.

Mrs. Webb can't hide her tears as she sees Emily and George come down the aisle together to become man and wife.

Challenging Champs

The excitement of a challenge, the satisfaction of a victory, the disappointment of defeat: all must be accepted with the grace and understanding that come with maturity. Athletics employs the fact that it is not what has been done, but how it has been done that counts: a lesson to be applied to everyday life.

Bruin Coaches Consult, Contrive,

With very earnest looks on their faces coaches Martin, Waugh, and Bowman discuss a win in a football contest.

Some very hardworking, devoted men are the coaches who train and work with the boys in various sports throughout the year. Coach "Bud" Elliott heads the gridiron team with the help of Burley Martin, Hurbert Waugh. Bruce Bowman and Raymond Barnett. Joe Baker and Bill Claflin are rarely seen as they are scouts covering other games.

After a short rest period, the Bears are in action again under the coaching of Jim Holwerda, varsity basketball coach, Stan Eitzen, B-Team coach and Sherman Price, Frosh coach. Next comes spring and Coach Baker gets the track team in shape, while Coach Holwerda is getting started with his tennis team and Mr. Eitzen's golf boys are beginning their season.

Coach Clafflin explains in a very humorous way how to complete a play to one of his Bruins.

Varsity football coach Elliot discusses the first half of a game with his Bruins before they return to the field.

Big Bears Capture Co-Championship

The Bruins opened their football season by losing three of their first four games. Turner was defeated by Shawnee Mission North 20-13. The second game the Bears took on the Shawnee Mission West squad and emerged victorious 19-0. Turner played one of its better games of the season when playing against Leavenworth. Leavenworth, however was a very strong team and the Bruins were defeated 20-13. Turner was defeated again in its Homecoming 7-0 by a strong defensive Olathe squad.

The Bears began their winning streak against Bonner Springs. Bonner was the foe to play the fighting black and gold, and Bruins gave a fine offensive performance by defeating the Braves 37-6.

The Argentine contest was the most important game of the season for the Bears. Turner defeated the Mustangs 14-7 for the second time in eighteen years. By virtue of this victory, Turner tied for first place in the EKL.

Ottawa was the next EKL foe to be defeated by the Bears 18-0. Turner clinched tie for the EKL championship with Argentine by defeating Rosedale 52-6 in the final game of the 1962-'63 season.

The team started off by losing their first three games. The Frosh were up for their next and probably most important game of the season against the Argentine Colts. They played their best game of the season and defeated Argentine 7-6. They then lost their last three games. This league record of 1 and 4 gave them a tie for fifth place in the league.

Turner finished its 1962-'63 basketball season with a loss to Ward 49-62 in the district regional. This year turned out to be Turner's second best record since 1955 of 8-10. In league play the Bears finished 4-6 and ended up fourth in standings.

The Bruins started the season with a bang by defeating Washburn Rural 67-55 but again the Sumner Spartans spoiled Turner's league chances by defeating them 63-53. Turner went on to capture second in the EKL Tournament. In the championship game Ottawa edged past the Bears 49-46.

Turner pushed past Ottawa in league play 56-45 to ruin a 7-0 record for the Cyclones. This is to be considered one of Turners best played games.

The varsity will have two returning lettermen for next year's squad.

This same situation plagued the Cubs more than once during the season with losses to Leavenworth 53-54, Argentine 53-55, and Ottawa 52-55 in two overtimes.

The team started the season with the tables turned slipping past Washburn 36-35, and then squeezed by Rosedale 49-48 and 45-42 the second time. Ottawa was defeated 46-45 by the Cubs. The remaining games were decisive wins and losses.

Frosh, Sophs Succeed in Several Stands

The sophomores were off to a good start as they won their first game against Shawnee Mission West 42-40. The next time out they were defeated by Wyandotte's sophomores 48-29 in a fruitless battle. On January 17 the sophs pulled through the Argentine game in fine fashion with a 49-31 win. On the 24th they again defeated a stubborn Shawnee Mission squad 59-51. Shawnee Mission North was another story as the sophs fell with a thud 55-32.

Under the able coaching of Sherman Price the Frosh ended their regular season with a 6-7 record. After winning their first three games they went into a five game losing streak. This streak was broken by the defeat of Ottawa 36-29. In the final game of the season Bonner ran past the Cubs 34-18 in the E.K.L. Tournament.

Tennis Teams Take Root

For the second year in tennis the Turner net men did fairly well. Don Webb and Bill Rock led in most contests contributed to by their last year's experience. In one match held at Ottawa the Cyclones shut out the Bears 7-0. Any person in high school is allowed to play tennis for the team and is encouraged to, states Coach Jim Holwerda.

Good Games are Golfer's Goal

Turner's golf team under the direction of coach Stan Eitzen completed another successful season. The Bears only lost one dual meet and this was the first loss in three years. The Ottawa Cyclones were the only team to defeat the Bears.

Jack Hill was a bright spot on the Turner squad this year. Jack was medalist for Turner with an 80 which helped Turner place second in the E.K.L. meet only ten points behind Ottawa.

Turner Trackmen Tally Top Totals

The Turner cindermen took second in the 1962-'63 EKL track season. The Bruins opened the season with a state indoor meet at Manhattan, Kansas and placed third.

In the second outing of the year, the team took first in a quadrangular meet at Ottawa. At the Ottawa relays Turner placed fourth. In a dual meet on our own track, Turner finished first over Olathe.

Turner participated in the Wyandotte County Relays held at Wyandotte High School. Places were awarded to individuals rather than teams. At Bonner Springs in a dual contest, Turner overran Bonner. The track team also participated in the Shawnee Mission Relays.

The big meet of the year, the EKL meet, Turner placed second. This meet decided the league standings. Thirteen boys qualified to go to the regional meet at Shawnee Mission North and from this group George Miller and Tom Petty went on to the state meet at Wichita, Kansas. George Miller placed fourth in the broad jump and Tom Pettey received fourth in low hurdles.

The varsity track team ended the season with a good standing in second place. During the year seven school records were broken and one tied.

Ending with a fairly successful season the Frosh cindermen placed third in the EKL meet with a score of 33 points. Placing ahead of Turner in this meet was Ottawa (first) and Olathe (second). Winchell from Turner placed in shot-put and Shiffer from Turner won first in high jump.

George Miller leaps high and far to break another record in the broad jump event.

Bears Have Boastful Backers

The cheerleaders have done a great deal to promote school spirit this year. Much hard work was put out by both squads to create new cheers and plan pep assemblies before each game.

Varsity cheerleaders are chosen in the spring of the year while the B-team cheerleaders are chosen in the fall. These girls are elected by popular vote of the student body. A "C" average must be maintained throughout the entire school year to keep the elected position.

Both squads of cheerleaders cheer during basketball season and the varsity cheerleaders cheer during football season.

A new attraction was added to pep club this year. Letter girls for the first time sat in front of the pep club during the games to spell out Turner. The girls were outfitted in gold skirts and vests with white blouses and a black letter. They were chosen by the pep club and must have been a senior and have participated in pep club for three years.

Spelling out their school's name are: Cheryl Schroeppel, Donna Malone, Kay Jones, Donna Harries, Dana Richardson, Twila Griffee, and Linda Syring, alternate.

Sports Spark School Spirit

Pep Club officers smile proudly before the trophy case: Scharlyn Wilson, president; Janet Stevens, program chairman; Sandy Goodrick, secretary; and Karen Thomas, vice-president.

Many Turner girls belong to the Pep Club, whose purpose is to create a love of sports, to foster the ideal of sportsmanship and to promote school spirit. Membership is opened to any girl who meets the requirements of the constitution.

It has a membership of 211 girls and does much to back our athletic teams throughout the year. The club sponsors are Miss Marshall, Mrs. Brady, Mrs. Dickson, Miss Callahan, and Miss Lindburg.

The T-Club is an organization for boys who have earned a varsity letter, or two B-team letters in a certain sport and stay out for that sport.

Some of the club activities are the annual T-Club Seniors-Faculty game, picnic, and working at sports events they are not participating in. The club is sponsored by Mr. Joe Baker, and Mr. William Claflin.

Physical Fitness is a Feminine Fancy

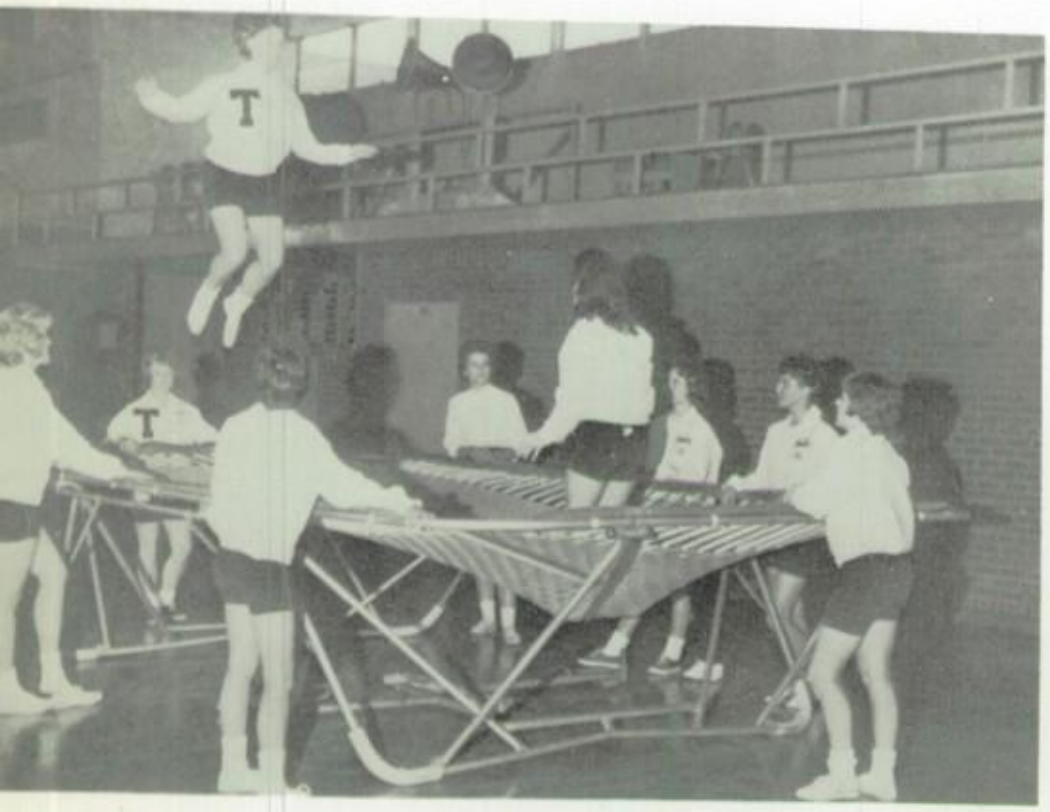
G A A--The Girls' Athletic Association of Turner High School, one of the most active organizations, was set up to develop true sportsmanship through team play and to encourage school spirit in athletics.

These girls supervise intramural activities throughout the year such as volleyball, basketball, softball, badminton, modern dance and bowling. Tumbling and tennis are open to G A A members as well as playdays and workshops.

To be eligible for membership, girls must earn at least 200 points from sports activities outside of school, pass the athletic requirements and maintain a "C" average.

With 500 points a letter is awarded, with 750 points a G A A pin is awarded, 1,000 points earn a guard, and with 1,500 points a bar is awarded. A trophy is awarded to the girl with the most points at the end of the year.



Trampoline demonstrations are a favorite of girls in G.A.A. Here they are practicing a special routine.

Pictured on a windy day are the G.A.A. officers: Roy Lynn Johnson, president; Melba Landers, vice-president; Corliss Rollwagen, point manager; and Shirley Middleton, secretary-treasurer.

An award banquet highlights the ending of the bowling season. Trophies are passed out and everyone has a good time.

Magic Moments

Life is a great adventure, to be lived and cherished. Each day brings with it another chance, uncovered opportunity, new ideas. Emphasis is on the future, the past is put aside. Yet deep inside of everyone, tucked safely away, are those few "magic moments" always to be remembered as life's special gifts to its benefactor; those few times when the world stood still and everything else was forgotten.

Students Focus on Fun of Festivities

Couples chat with friends between dances.

Excitement and gaiety lived again at the twenty-sixth annual Turner High School Homecoming. As is tradition the queen was crowned by the Homecoming King during the halftime ceremonies at the game. Following the game graduates of Turner were invited to attend the dance which was held in the big gym. The highlight of the evening was the introduction of former Turner Homecoming queens including Mrs. Pat Harbour Jones, mother of this year's Homecoming queen, and Mrs. Klyda Kyle Way, mother of the junior candidate. The Homecoming royalty led the dancing to the music of the Dick Van Sant band.

Sweethearts Enjoy an Enchanted Evening

Sweetheart candidates watching proceedings are: Butch Wicinski and John Flower, juniors; Pam Martin and Mike Meginn, sophomores; Pat Arnold and Terry Winchell, freshmen.

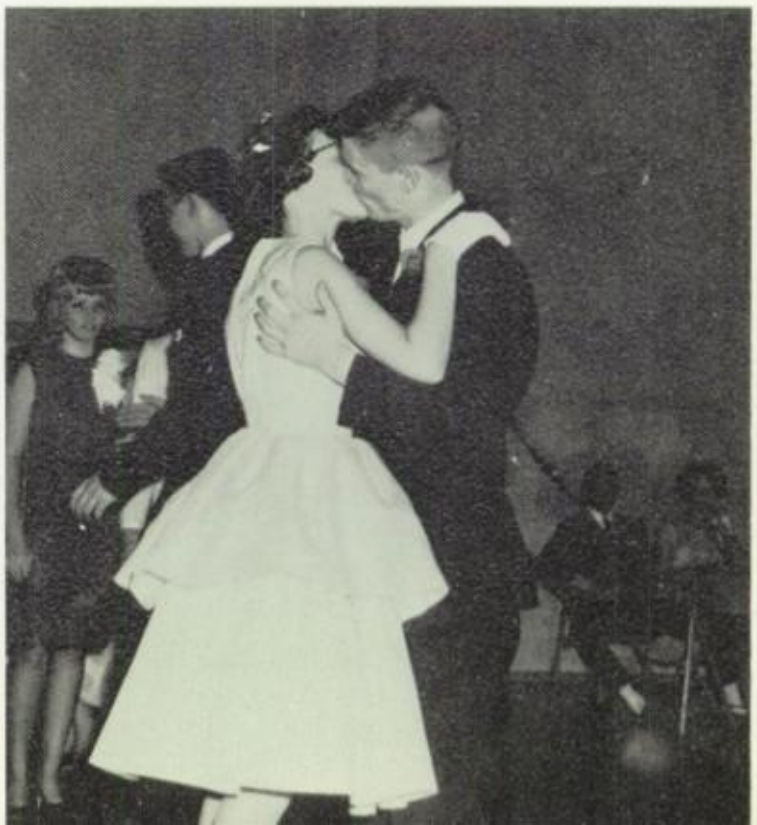
A romantic mood caught everyone as couples danced to the strains of sweetheart music.

"Remarkable" says Don Webb as he watches Kenny Shaw stack up cookies.

Love was in the air on the night of the Sweetheart Dance, February 16. Cupids and hearts filled the gym as couples danced to the romantic music of specially selected albums. Gary Leach served as an able Master of Ceremonies putting everyone at ease with humorous informality. Entertainment was also provided by Gary with the help of Jack Gibbons and John Flowers.

The evening was made complete with the crowning of a sweetheart king and queen chosen from eight candidates, a couple from each class.

The evening became a night to remember for George and Linda.



Prom was Perfect Place for

The head table is shown enjoying the banquet that began the prom.

A big night "Under the Big Top" was shared by the juniors and seniors at the annual Junior-Senior prom. The sophomore servers dressed in such costumes as that of a clown, gypsy and aerial artists later provided entertainment starting the dance.

The gym was decorated with radiance as colorful balloons flew about and a merry-go-round offered a touch of realness to the theme. The Shadowmen added to the magic evening with their music to dance by. Along with the customary refreshment, a cotton candy machine was present to round out a very memorable evening for the seniors and juniors alike.

The Shadowmen presented music to dance by at this festive occasion.

Strange things happened at this year's prom. What could she be looking for?

"April in Paris" was the theme of one of the big events of the year, the 1962-'63 Press Ball. It is at this dance the Turnerite royalty is presented and crowned.

The scene was an outdoor cafe in Paris complete with colorful canopies, red-checked tablecloths, and a band pavilion. A huge regal crown backed the throne. As the royal couples were introduced they walked together proudly through a gold Arch of Triumph to be crowned by the Homecoming King and Queen. The entertainment highlight was a Can-Can dance by six junior girls. Pam McGregor and Roger Jones also sang special selections. To finish a perfect evening couples danced to the music of Jimmy Tucker and the Townsmen.

Today's Tomorrows

Students of today are leaders of tomorrow, but as they think of each other now they are simply the boy in study hall, the cute girl in fourth hour, or the next door neighbor. Knowing each other is one lesson school could not teach alone. Tomorrow they will live together in a world of responsibility and decisions; today they laugh together in a world of fun and promise.

In Memoriam

BILL BEACH

You cannot say, you must not say
That he is dead. He is just away!
With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand
He has wandered into an unknown land
And left us dreaming how very fair

It needs must be, since he lingers there;
So think of him faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of Here,
Think of him still as the same, and say
He is not dead, he is just away.

James Whitcomb Riley

Turner Pays Tribute to Mr. Palmquist

Mrs. Palmquist shares with her husband the tribute paid him on his twenty-fifth anniversary of service to Turner High School.

A tall young man, blond, slender, believing earnestly in youth's insistent dream, found two hundred pupils and eight teachers in the Turner High School when he came as principal twenty-five years ago. Through a quarter of a century he has led and directed, disciplined and cajoled, inspired and often prayed for Turner High and the young folk that were going down the road to adulthood under his guidance. And now, with more than a thousand under one roof, he steers with unchallenged sureness along a four-lane, super highway built of students, a teaching staff, parents and a Board of Education.

This man has been a power in the State Association of Teachers, acting on the Board of Directors of K.S.T.A., particularly in school legislation where he is an authority. And now, closing this successful five-year term, he advances to our highest professional level, the board of directors of the N.E.A.

Outstanding as these deeds have been, and faithfully as they have been carried out, there is something else still greater. This man has taught us that to "do" something is wonderful, but not so wonderful as to "be" something. He has been the soul of dignity and integrity, of honor and devotion to duty, of an abiding optimism, of faith in the eternal goodness of life and in youth's capacity of improve. His quick sympathy can be appreciated only by those who have known trouble. This man we salute today --Our principal, "Mr. Palmquist."

by Miss Margaret Leatherberry

Mr. Palmquist is shown unwrapping a gift of luggage presented him by Mr. Wilkins on behalf of the faculty.

Commencement Comes--Completion

The graduating class of 1963 assembles together for the last time.

Mr. Paul Jones congratulates Mike Auchard upon receiving his diploma.

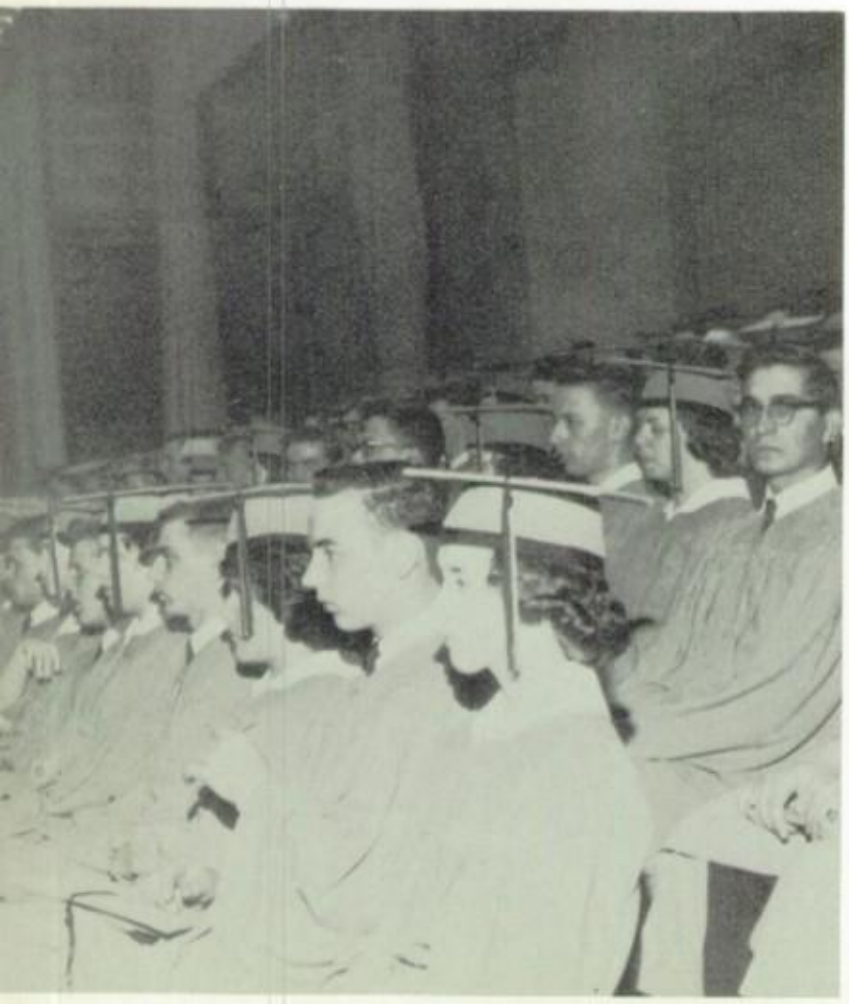
Or Continuance is Considered

"Don't miss your cue!" Reverend Paul Davis says to the class of 1963.

White roses touched with glimpses of lavender added to the memories of Commencement for the class of 1963. The graduates walked down the aisle to the strains of Pomp and Circumstance. As they sat together for the last time as a class they listened to their classmates speak words that they, too, may have felt. They let the words of Reverend Davis remain in their minds to be applied many times throughout their lives. They realized that they were at a turning point and began to look to the future with anxious anticipation.

Graduates listen intensely to the words that will start them on the road of life.



Carol Alvey as Valedictorian takes a look into the future as she speaks to her classmates and friends.
